Washington, D. C.

Dear Art:

I have been trying to find a minute to drop you a little personal note, but have been unable to do so. As you know our opening is this coming week and I would like to get a little extra co-operation from the Afro, you are going to be sent a picture of Mayor Ellenstien signing the proclamation proclaiming May 11th 372nd day in Newark, I would like you to carry the picture if possible along with the story of the proclamation.

I am certainly sorry you will not be able to come to our Opening. I will make every effort to try and see you real soon.

Very truly yours,
